

LEADERSHIP / STRATEGIC PARTNERS

George Hunter, a Transportation Engineer, specializes in the application of value improvement practices, lean methodology, risk assessment, decision analysis and performance assessments to the development, operation and transition of transportation projects, products and services. He has over 30 years of experience in managing, designing and constructing transportation projects working for the California Department of Transportation & private consulting firms. He has concentrated his 250 completed project assurance reviews on the Transportation Sector. George is a Professional Engineer— registered in 3 states, a certified a Project Management Professional (PMP) and a Certified Value Specialist (CVS). He reads, writes and speaks Spanish and Portuguese. George has a degree in Civil Engineering.

John Borza, an innovation consultant, has over 35 years of experience in Value Engineering, Enhanced Brainstorming (TRIZ), Design for Manufacture/Assembly (DFM/A) and other innovation techniques applied to automotive products, home care products, food processing, hospitality and service industry. Early in his career, he was an R&D specialist, before moving into production and product launch roles. He is an Altshuler Institute certified TRIZ Practitioner, and a SAVE International Certified Associate Value Specialist (AVS). He earned his BS degree in Electrical Engineering & MBA from the University of Michigan.

Cesar Queiroz, International Transportation Specialist, specializes in Procurement Models including Public-Private Partnerships (P3), Performance-Based Contracts and Public Expenditure Reviews. He has extensive global experience; having worked in over 30 countries, from his 20-year tenure World Bank and experience with other Development Banks such as: IADB, IFC, USAID and the EIB. Cesar, a native of Brazil, has extensive experience in Brazilian transportation public sector. He has a PhD from the University of Texas at Austin, concentrated in transportation and speaks various languages.

Steve Hunter is a business strategist with hands-on knowledge of business process improvement. He uses a variety of proven tools and techniques such as business performance management, process modeling and agile management techniques. He is an expert in applying enterprise architecture approach with practical implementation for business, data, application, and IT architecture. Steve development of the EA WebModeler-Graphical Modeler enables graphical visualization and manipulation of models in the application of enterprise architecture. Steve has a MS degree in Software Engineering.

Ronald Blok, is the former CEO of Rabo Bank experienced in global financing and business environments, that includes managing financial institutions in Holland, Germany, Poland, Singapore, England and Chile. As CEO of Rabobank NA from 2006 to 2013 he oversaw a 400% increase in bank assets through organic growth and acquisitions. His skill sets include international financing, economic analysis and business case analysis. He has experience in leveraged financing, mergers and acquisitions for corporate business clients in the UK and Europe. Ronald has a degree in Economics.

Geoff Millen, P.Eng – Transportation Engineer, Road Safety Specialist

Geoff has more than 23 years of experience in road and highway design, roadside design, road safety engineering, value engineering for highways, and applied human factors, with MMM Group Limited. He currently serves as the Senior Road Safety Engineering Specialist and Road Safety Auditor (Team Leader) for their national road safety engineering practice where he brings a valuable road design and constructability experience and perspective, as well as post-university training in collision reconstruction. Geoff has worked on road safety projects, specializing quantitative road safety analysis, across Canada and California and in support of design decisions.

Irani de Siqueira directs P360's Latin American operations. Irani has 35 years of experience of working with the Brazilian Federal Government, primarily with the Ministry of Transportation. He currently directs a research and development firm matching emerging technology/IT solutions with Brazilian and Latin American government & business needs. His combined public and consultant services rewards P360's clients access to Brazilian marketplace in terms of local, state and federal regulations and business environment. Irani has a degree in Economics.